

Cary Public Art Workshops

2012 Cary Public Art Master Plan

Please join us for these two important workshops to help shape public art policy in Cary

CaryArt EXPERIENCE

Thurs, November 3, 2011

Cary Arts Center 101 Dry Avenue
6:30 p.m. to 9 p.m.

- How do we experience art?
- How is public art changing?
- What kinds of public art do we want to see in Cary?
- What principles, if any, should govern new artworks?

CaryArt PLACES

Sat, November 5, 2011

Cary Arts Center 101 Dry Avenue
9:30 a.m. to noon

- What kind of places do we want to discover art?
- Should certain places have themes for art?
- Where are public art opportunities in Maynard's Loop?
- What other opportunities exist throughout Cary?

Who should attend these workshops?

- * Cary residents interested in public art
- * Business owners interested in the economic benefits of public art
- * Artists and designers
- * Local officials who want to learn more about public art

SPONSORED BY THE CARY CULTURAL ARTS DIVISION. FOR MORE INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT:
Denise Dickens, Cary Public Art Coordinator, at (919) 465-4791, or denise.dickens@townofcary.org

TOWN of CARY

www.townofcary.org

