Cary Heritage Museum at the Page-Walker Arts & History Center

During your visit to the Cary Heritage Museum, experience Cary's metamorphosis from a railroad village to a high-tech community. You will feel the ambiance of the Town a century ago as you view a scale model of the village, meet Cary's founding family, and learn about the Union general from Ohio for whom our Town was named. A detailed growth chart enables you to see the development of the Cary community from a one square mile area in 1871 to a fifty-five square mile area in 2009. A time line, comprised of two and three-dimensional artifacts, provides historic perspective by juxtaposing national and international events with significant happenings in Cary.

Your ideas are welcome! We have developed "Cary-on!," a study guide for teachers and students who are interested in learning more about Cary. "Cary-osity," a DVD depicting the history of Cary, is available to introduce schools, civic organizations and newcomers to the Town. Ongoing programs link the past to the present and help us to imagine the future.

Be a part of the Cary Heritage Museum by training to lead tours for children and adults. For more, call (919) 460-4963.

The Page-Walker Arts & History Center is alive with classes, events, performances, meetings, receptions and exhibitions. The center also supports two fine arts galleries featuring local and regional artists' works, a library which serves as a resource center for the works of Walter Hines Page, rooms decorated with period furniture, and the original Page Smokehouse and Herb Garden.
