6.	How was the Class advertised in the neighborhood?	Stoneybrook Garden Club via Email, Neighborhood Flyers, and Facebook as well as TOC website
7.	How did the class go? A brief description	The presentation included a PowerPoint presentation of common local birds, likely to be found throughout Cary. The presentation included bird songs, and focused on key identification features, habitat associations, and behavior. The program was well attended and appreciated by all. Larry used effective interpretative skills drawing participation and interest of participants. Good advice on observing, feeding and appreciating native birds. Nice invitation to join Wake Audubon. Thanks Larry, Emily and all who attended!
8.	Incentives/giveaways if any offered	Bird feeders and bluebird houses were offered as prizes in a raffle.
9.	Any green event guidelines followed?	Many! Minimal paper or any other waste to promote the program or during the program. Minimum number of brochures made available from Audubon, but few taken as most had the information previously or electronically. Nothing was purchased for the event. Electronic thank you's.
