

Community Activity Report

1.	Neighborhood	Lochmere
2.	Class name and Instructor	Creating a Garden for Wildlife: A walk and talk class/Emily Barrett and Mark Johns
3.	Date, time and location when class was held	February 25, 2017, 11 AM, at the Page-Walker Arts & History Center (starting location) in Downtown Cary.
4.	Adult volunteer coordinator(s)	Cecelia Davidson
5.	Youth volunteer coordinator(s)	None
6.	# of participants	11
7.	How was the Class advertised in the neighborhood?	Posted on the Lochmere.org website, with a follow up email to all of Lochmere; separate email sent to friends and signups from other activities
8.	How did the class go? A brief description	Really well, the participants were involved and active, as the instructors were very knowledgeable, organized and flexible so questions were handled well. Handouts were very good too.
9.	Incentives/giveaways if any offered	Through raffles drawing, a hummingbird feeder and a gift card to Mayton Inn were given, as well as two Wildlife Habitat signs from NWF. All participants received two packs of seeds for native plants.
10.	Any green event guidelines followed?	All communications were handled electronically. No refreshments were served.
11.	Photos

