

Community Activity Report

1.	Neighborhood	Riggsbee Farm
2.	Class name and Instructor	Backyard Vegetable Gardening; Rich Woynicz and Jan Panajkar, Wake County Extension Master Gardeners.
3.	Date, time and location when class was held	March 25, 2017; (1-3)PM; Neighborhood volunteer coordinator's home
4.	Adult volunteer coordinator(s)	Nimiksha Patel
5.	# of participants	28 (including 7 kids)
6.	How was the Class advertised in the neighborhood?	Nextdoor; neighborhood chat groups
7.	How did the class go? A brief description	The class was very fun and successful! It began with a 30 minute power point presentation by Rich on basics of gardening. Certain components of the presentation were geared towards kids and were well received. The second part of the class was very hands on and had 2 parts- one for kids and another for adults. The kids sowed flower seeds in plastic pots in packs of 4-6. Adults transplanted saplings of tomato plants into bigger pots to take home. Lot of interactive discussion occurred all along the planting part of the class.
8.	Any additional comments/observations by the volunteer coordinator	The host volunteer did not enjoy the organizing process because of restrictions involved
9.	Incentives/giveaways if any offered	Rick Woynicz provided many supplies for the class, which included flower seeds; tomato plants, plastic pots, and numerous hand-outs on gardening topics. The Town provided soil for the plants and 3 planters made of renewable grain husk for kids raffle.
10.	Any green event guidelines followed?	The raffle planters were made of renewable grain husk. The soil was organic and compost based.

11. Photos

