Accessibility Information

Guests with Special Needs

Cary Senior Center is committed to making its programs and the facility accessible to people of all abilities.

Access

The Cary Senior Center is one level and zero-grade entry. There are three accessible entrances to the Center that separate the Administrative/Exercise wing, Education wing and Ballroom/kitchen wing. The main entrance by the flag pole faces the parking lot and is best used for access to the Administrative/Exercise wing which contains the lobby for registration, staff offices, exercise room, and art shows. This front entrance has automatic slide open doors.

The south entrance or Education wing (to the right of the main entrance) is best used to access educational and arts classes as well as open play games. This south entrance does not have automatic doors.

The north entrance or ballroom/kitchen wing (to the left of the main entrance) is best used for activities and events located in the ballroom and kitchen. The north entrance does not have automatic doors. Cary Senior Center also has ADA-approved signage, and ramps to access the main entrances.

Drop-off & Parking

A covered entrance is located in front of the Cary Senior Center for drop-off. Convenient, on-grade handicap van-accessible parking spaces are available in front of the Cary Senior Center. Vehicles utilizing those spaces should display a handicap parking placard or plate.

Restrooms

There are wheelchair-accessible men's and women's restrooms available in each wing of the building. There are wheelchair-accessible water fountains located in each wing. There is also a gender neutral/family restroom in the administrative area.

Sign Language Interpretation

The Cary Senior Center can provide sign language interpretation for guests who require it. Please request this service at least 30 days in advance of the event.

Service Animals

Service animals are welcome inside the Cary Senior Center provided they remain on a leash or in a harness at all times. If you are bringing a service animal to an event, please notify the front desk staff when you arrive. If requiring a service animal for a trip program, please give notice 30 days in advance.

Large Print

Large print class hand-outs and materials are available for patrons. We ask that requests for this service be made 30 days prior to the program.
